

Strength-Based Parenting After Brain Injury

Would You Like to Learn More About How to Develop Positive Relationships & Raise Resilient Children?

Attend a free on-line session (3-hours total), for Virginia's civilians and veterans with TBI and their non-injured partners. Learn hands-on tools to assist couples in positively changing the way families deal with the stress associated with brain injury and parenting.

We invite parents who are co-parenting minor children living at home to attend. A gift card incentive worth $100.00 for each participant will be provided.

Upcoming Dates

Saturday, September 25th from 10 -1:30

Friday, November 19th from 10 -1:30
