

Scope of Services

Who does BIAV provide services to?

- Persons with brain injury
- Caregivers of persons with brain injury
- Professionals providing services to persons with brain injury
- General public

What do those services include?

Outreach & Support

- Resource facilitation
- Trauma registry outreach
- General inquiries
- Host support group in Richmond
- Support group leader training across the state

Education

- Conferences
- Webinars
- Presentations
- Workshops
- CBIS Training

Public Awareness

- Social media campaigns
- Monthly e-newsletters
- Community presentations

Advocacy

- Involvement in legislative and policy arenas
- Distribute self-advocacy tools and resources
- Host Virginia Brain Injury Awareness Day during General Assembly Session

Camp Bruce McCoy

- Recreational camp for persons with brain injury in Chesapeake, Virginia
- Must be 18 years or older to apply
- Specific physical and cognitive abilities are required; please visit the Camp Bruce McCoy website page for more information

How can I access these services?

- By phone; Monday - Friday, 9:00 AM (EST) to 5:00 PM (EST)
- Online chat; go to our website to start live-chatting
- Resource request forms; go to our website to fill out a form for more detailed information
- Website resources; available 24/7

Services NOT provided by BIAV:

- Case management
- Service Planning
- Crisis intervention
- Financial Assistance
- Psychological Counseling
- Medical consultations or diagnoses